

Programme

Baltic Nature Tourism and the UK Market from Insights to the Future Perspectives

12th of November, Annas Koku Skola

Preliminary schedule

- 10:00 – Registration and coffee
- 10:20 – Tour of Annas Koku Skola and its surroundings
- 11:00 – Opening and project summary
- 11:30 – The UK market and Baltic opportunities (Andy Fairburn, Nordic Tourism Collective)
- 13:00 – Office yoga and lunch
- 14:30 – Panel discussion with Latvian and Estonian entrepreneurs on the future of nature tourism
- 15:30 – Coffee, snacks, and networking
- 16:00 – Micro-mobility demonstration
- 17:00 – Closing

Interreg

Co-funded by the European Union

Central Baltic Programme

NAT-TOUR-EXPO

Latvijas Dabas
Tūrisma Asociācija

Eesti Loodusturismi Ühing

This activity is supported by the Interreg Central Baltic Programme 2021–2027 project “Baltic Nature Tourism – Entering the UK Market”, co-financed by the European Union.

12th of November
@ Annas Koku Skola